While it is certain that the new Board Aldermen will be anti-Tammany, be heard from officially to decide in cases where the vote is very close.

It has been generally conceded that

Goodwin, the Tammany candidate in the Thirteenth, has been defeated, yet when the returns from the Thirty-sixth Election District are counted, the result may show that he has won by a small plural-The missing district gave 213 votes for Hill and 68 for Morton. With the dis-trict uncounted, the vote for Alderman is as follows:

State ticket, Goodwin would win by 96 votes.

This, however, would not alter the main result, as the Board now stands composed of 17 Republicmans and 18 Democrats. The election of Goodwin would make it 14 Democrats and 18 Republicans, with President Jeroloman casting an Anti-Tammany ballot.

The complete returns from the Twentythird Ward arrived at Police Headquarters this morning. There were about thirty-five election districts missing. The complete returns give Gecks, the Tammany candidate, 4,001. and H. L. School, Republican, 8,464.

Republicans Claim that Holcomb Was Elected by Fraud.

The gift evidently comes from two Southern States. It attracted a great deal of attention in Jersey City this morning. It fell to the charge of driver Mattle Hoey, and he went with it at once to Tammany Hall. Hoey set the common down on the sidewalk and asked one of the carpenters to receipt for it. One of the workmen brandished a hammer and howled at the driver:

"Tou'll be after needing the coffin yourself if you don't clear out of here with it."

Hoey then bundled the gruesome testimonial back into the wagon and took it to the Company's offices. There it was said that the coffin would be placed in the boldover room and Mr. Hill duly solified that it was held at his risk.
